The Legislative Research Commission, established by Article 6B of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes, is the general purpose study group in the Legislative Branch of State Government. The Commission is co-chaired by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives and has five additional members appointed from each house of the General Assembly. Among the Commission's duties is that of making or causing to be made, upon the direction of the General Assembly, "such studies of and investigation into governmental agencies and institutions and matters of public policy as will aid the General Assembly in performing its duties in the most efficient and effective manner" (G.S. 120-30.17(1)).

The Legislative Research Commission authorized the study of Age of Juvenile Offenders, under authority of G.S. 120-30.17(1). The Committee was chaired by Representative Marilyn Avila. The full membership of the Committee is listed under Committee Membership. A committee notebook containing the committee minutes and all information presented to the committee will be filed in the Legislative Library by the end of the 2011-2012 biennium.
COMMITTEE PROCEEDINGS

The Legislative Research Commission's Committee on Age of Juvenile Offenders met three times after the 2012 Regular Session. The following is a brief summary of the Committee's proceedings. Detailed minutes and information from each Committee meeting are available in the Legislative Library.

October 17, 2012

The first meeting was held on Wednesday, October 17, 2012 at 2:00 PM in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. Susan Sitze, Staff Attorney, provided the Committee with an overview of the current law in North Carolina and summarized Senate Bill 434, Edition 3. Next, Joel Rosch, Senior Research Scholar and Policy Liaison at the Center for Child & Family Policy at Duke University presented a policy overview. Robin Jenkins, Deputy Director, Division of Juvenile Justice, North Carolina Department of Public Safety presented an overview of the current juvenile justice system. Finally, the Committee heard remarks from Phil Berger, Jr., District Attorney, Prosecutorial District 17A, representing the Conference of District Attorneys; and Eric Zogry, Juvenile Defender, Office of Indigent Defense Services.

November 29, 2012

The second meeting was held on Thursday, November 29, 2012 at 9:30 AM in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. The Committee heard presentations on juvenile justice legislation from Connecticut, Illinois, and Florida. Next, Jon Powell, Professor at Campbell Law School discussed Restorative Justice programs. The Committee then heard a presentation on Teen Court programs from Jillian Musa, Coordinator, Carteret County Teen Court. Finally, the Committee heard a presentation by Teresa Price, Director of Community Programs, and William Lassiter, State Contracts Administrator, on Juvenile Justice Community Programs. The Committee also discussed potential findings and recommendations.

December 18, 2012

The final meeting was held on Tuesday, December 18, 2012 at 2:00 PM in Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building. The Committee approved the final report.
RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee recommends that the proposals contained in the 3rd Edition of Senate Bill 434 of the 2011 Session (see Appendix D) be adopted by the North Carolina General Assembly after consideration of the issues set out below, and any changes necessary to appropriately address those issues.

The issues the Committee believes should be considered before adoption by the General Assembly are:

- Whether it would be better to incorporate 16 and 17 year olds into the juvenile system using a staggered time period or by adding all 16 and 17 year olds at one time. If a staggered time period is best, whether the increments contained in S434 are appropriate, or whether it should be staggered by some other method or time period.

- Whether A1 misdemeanors should be considered differently from other misdemeanor offenses for which 16 and 17 year olds will be considered juveniles. If it is determined that they should be considered differently, then how. Possible idea for consideration include, charging in adult court with a process for transferring to juvenile court and charging in juvenile court with a rebuttable presumption of transfer to adult court.

- How to deal with a 16 or 17 year old initially charged with a felony in adult court where the charges are reduced to a misdemeanor. Whether there should be a process to allow the court to transfer the 16 or 17 year old to juvenile court after the charge reduction.

- Whether there should be a process to allow law enforcement to release 16 and 17 year olds, who are alleged delinquent for offenses that will be initiated in juvenile court, on some form of summons or citation without compliance with some of the requirements when dealing with juveniles under the age of 16, such as retaining the juvenile until they can be released to a parent or guardian.

- Whether S434 should only apply to first offenders with no previous convictions (excluding minor traffic violations).

COMMITTEE CHARGE

The LRC Study Committee on the Age of Juvenile Offenders shall study North Carolina's current juvenile justice system and identify reforms that may reduce long-term recidivism. Specifically, the Committee shall study:

1. What juvenile justice reforms are needed to implement the proposal in Senate Bill 434, Edition 3, for raising the age for misdemeanors;

2. Evidence-based models for reducing juvenile recidivism, such as the Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative of the Annie E. Casey Foundation, including models to reduce inappropriate or unnecessary use of secured detention;

3. How best to reserve secure facilities for the most troubled youth. This shall include assessing the recidivism rates and costs and benefits of alternatives to placement programs in the juvenile justice system, such as electronic monitoring;

4. Best practices among community-based programs, such as the Juvenile Crime Prevention Council System, that utilize evidence-based programs to reduce youth recidivism;

5. How to prepare local prisons for implementation of Department of Justice regulations related to the Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003, P.L. 108-79, including ensuring that all youth under the age of 18 are held separately from adults.

"§ 7B-2506. Dispositional alternatives for delinquent juveniles.

The court exercising jurisdiction over a juvenile who has been adjudicated delinquent may use the following alternatives in accordance with the dispositional structure set forth in G.S. 7B-2508:

(1) In the case of any juvenile under the age of 18 years who needs more adequate care or supervision or who needs placement, the judge may:

(2) Excuse the a juvenile under the age of 16 years from compliance with the compulsory school attendance law when the court finds that suitable alternative plans can be arranged by the family through other community resources for one of the following:

- An education related to the needs or abilities of the juvenile including vocational education or special education;
- A suitable plan of supervision or placement; or
- Some other plan that the court finds to be in the best interests of the juvenile.

(3) Order the juvenile to cooperate with a community-based program, an intensive substance abuse treatment program, or a residential or nonresidential treatment program. Participation in the programs shall not exceed 12 months.

delinquent or convicted for more than one offense in a single session of district court, only the adjudication or conviction for the offense with the highest point total is used.

(e) Classification of Prior Adjudications or Convictions From Other Jurisdictions. — Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, an adjudication or conviction occurring in a jurisdiction other than North Carolina is classified as a Class I felony if the jurisdiction in which the offense occurred classifies the offense as a felony, or is classified as a Class 3 misdemeanor if the jurisdiction in which the offense occurred classifies the offense as a misdemeanor. If the juvenile proves by the preponderance of the evidence that an offense classified as a felony in the other jurisdiction is substantially similar to an offense that is a misdemeanor in North Carolina, the adjudication or conviction is treated as that class of misdemeanor for assigning delinquency history level points. If the State proves by the preponderance of the evidence that an offense classified as either a misdemeanor or a felony in the other jurisdiction is substantially similar to an offense in North Carolina that is classified as a Class I felony or higher, the adjudication or conviction is treated as that class of felony for assigning delinquency history level points. If the State proves by the preponderance of the evidence that an offense classified as a misdemeanor in the other jurisdiction is substantially similar to an offense classified as a Class A1 misdemeanor in North Carolina, the adjudication or conviction is treated as a Class A1 misdemeanor for assigning delinquency history level points.

(f) Proof of Prior Adjudications or Convictions. — A prior adjudication or conviction shall be proved by any of the following methods:

(1) Stipulation of the parties.
(2) An original or copy of the court record of the prior adjudication or conviction.
(3) A copy of records maintained by the Division of Criminal Information or by the Division.
(4) Any other method found by the court to be reliable.

The State bears the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that a prior adjudication or conviction exists and that the juvenile before the court is the same person as the juvenile named in the prior adjudication or conviction. The original or a copy of the court records or a copy of the records maintained by the Division of Criminal Information or of the Division, bearing the same name as that by which the juvenile is charged, is prima facie evidence that the juvenile named is the same person as the juvenile before the court, and that the facts set out in the record are true. For purposes of this subsection, "a copy" includes a paper writing containing a reproduction of a record maintained electronically on a computer or other data processing equipment, and a document produced by a facsimile machine. The prosecutor shall make all feasible efforts to obtain and present to the court the juvenile's full record. Evidence presented by either party at trial may be utilized to prove prior adjudications or convictions. If asked by the juvenile, the prosecutor shall furnish the juvenile's prior adjudications or convictions to the juvenile within a reasonable time sufficient to allow the juvenile to determine if the record available to the prosecutor is accurate.”

SECTION 7.(a) Effective July 1, 2016, G.S. 7B-2513(a) reads as rewritten:
Appendix D

"(a) Pursuant to G.S. 7B-2506 and G.S. 7B-2508, the court may commit a delinquent juvenile who is at least 10 years of age to the Division for placement in a youth development center. Commitment shall be for an indefinite term of at least six months.

(a1) In no event shall the term exceed: For an offense the juvenile committed prior to reaching the age of 16 years, the term shall not exceed:

(1) The twenty-first birthday of the juvenile if the juvenile has been committed to the Division for an offense that would be first-degree murder pursuant to G.S. 14-17, first-degree rape pursuant to G.S. 14-27.2, or first-degree sexual offense pursuant to G.S. 14-27.4 if committed by an adult;

committed to the Division for an offense that would be a Class B1, B2, C, D, or E felony if committed by an adult, other than an offense set forth in subdivision (1) of this subsection; or

(3) The eighteenth birthday of the juvenile if the juvenile has been committed to the Division for an offense other than an offense that would be a Class A, B1, B2, C, D, or E felony if committed by an adult.

(a2) For an offense the juvenile committed while the juvenile was at least 16 years of age, the term shall not exceed the juvenile's 19th birthday.

(a3) Reserved.

(a4) No juvenile shall be committed to a youth development center beyond the minimum six-month commitment for a period of time in excess of the maximum term of imprisonment for which an adult in prior record level VI for felonies or in prior conviction level III for misdemeanors could be sentenced for the same offense, except when the Division pursuant to G.S. 7B-2515 determines that the juvenile's commitment needs to be continued for an additional period of time to continue care or treatment under the plan of care or treatment developed under subsection (f) of this section. At the time of commitment to a youth development center, the court shall determine the maximum period of time the juvenile may remain committed before a determination must be made by the Division pursuant to G.S. 7B-2515 and shall notify the juvenile of that determination."

SECTION 7.(b) Effective July 1, 2017, G.S. 7B-2513(a2) reads as rewritten:

"(a2) For an offense the juvenile committed while the juvenile was at least 16 years of age but less than 17 years of age, the term shall not exceed the juvenile's 19th birthday."

SECTION 7.(c) Effective July 1, 2018, G.S. 7B-2513(a3) reads as rewritten:

"(a3) For an offense the juvenile committed while the juvenile was at least 17 years of age, the term shall not exceed the juvenile's 20th birthday."

SECTION 8. Effective July 1, 2016, G.S. 7B-2515(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In determining whether a juvenile who was committed to the Division for an offense that was committed prior to the juvenile reaching the age of 16 years should be released before the juvenile's 18th birthday, the Division shall consider the protection of the public and the likelihood that continued placement will lead to further rehabilitation.
If the Division does not intend to release the juvenile who was committed for an offense

Age of Juvenile Offenders-LRC that was committed prior to the juvenile reaching the age of 16 years prior to the juvenile's eighteenth birthday, or if the Division determines that the juvenile's commitment should be continued beyond the maximum commitment period as set forth in G.S. 7B-2513(a), G.S. 7B-2513(a1), the Division shall notify the juvenile and the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian in writing at least 30 days in advance of the juvenile's eighteenth birthday or the end of the maximum commitment period, of the additional specific commitment period proposed by the Division, the basis for extending the commitment period, and the plan for future care or treatment."

SECTION 9. Effective July 1, 2016, G.S. 7B-2603(b) reads as rewritten:
"(b) Once an order of transfer has been entered by the district court, the juvenile has the right to be considered for pretrial release as provided in G.S. 15A-533 and G.S. 15A-534. Pending release, the juvenile shall be detained pursuant to G.S. 7B-2204.
The release order shall specify the person or persons to whom the juvenile may be released. Pending release, the court shall order that the juvenile be detained in a detention facility while awaiting trial. The court may order the juvenile to be held in a holdover facility as defined by G.S. 7B-1501 at any time the presence of the juvenile is required in court for pretrial hearings or trial, if the court finds that it would be inconvenient to return the juvenile to the detention facility."

SECTION 10.(a) Effective July 1, 2016, the introductory language of G.S. 5A-31(a) reads as rewritten:
"(a) Each of the following, when done by an unemancipated minor who (i) is at least six years of age, (ii) is not yet 16 years and six months of age, and (iii) has not been convicted of any crime in superior court, is contempt by a juvenile."

SECTION 10.(b) Effective July 1, 2017, the introductory language of G.S. 5A-31(a) reads as rewritten:
"(a) Each of the following, when done by an unemancipated minor who (i) is at
